The Newsletter of the Pacific Sociological Association

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM: THE 73RD ANNUAL PACIFIC SOCIOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION MEETING
HYATT REGENCY HOTEL, VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA
APRIL 18-21, 2002
THEME: SOCIAL JUSTICE

Dear PSA Colleagues:

Program Chair Peter Callero and I have put together a program of over 220 sessions and roundtables, many of them focusing on the conference theme of "Social Justice." Several Presidential Sessions will also focus on this theme, including sessions on: Transnational Feminist Politics; Teaching for Social Justice; Sexual Politics as a Prism of Social Justice; Responses to Globalization; and Hate Crimes. Taking advantage of the meeting location in British Columbia, a number of sessions will focus on Canadian issues. Some of these sessions will examine environmental struggles in Western Canada, urban struggles in Vancouver, and debates about public health policies in Canada, among other topics. And, several sessions will focus on issues associated with the Mexico-U.S. border. Thus the 2002 PSA Annual Meeting will be an exciting and vibrant exchange of ideas in a broad spectrum of interactive formats: roundtables, debates, panel discussions, paper presentations, multimedia sessions and workshops.

As a special enticement, the meetings are located in Vancouver, B.C., the first time in many years our meetings have been held in Canada. Vancouver is a magical city, with a gorgeous setting of bays and mountains and a cosmopolitan culture. Among the city highlights is Stanley Park, a 1,000 acre oasis of forests and seashore at the tip of downtown, and walking distance from the conference hotel; the Robson Street shopping district, immediately adjacent to our hotel; the UBC campus, with its magnificent physical setting and world-renowned Anthropology Museum; and the Granville Market. As a special bonus for PSA members who live in the U.S., the exchange rate is excellent, making possible our location in a fine hotel and affording us opportunities for exceptional dining and shopping. So, we invite you to attend the meetings and take full advantage of both the intellectual and the tourist highlights!

Judith Howard, PSA President

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM: VANCOUVER APRIL 18-APRIL 21, 2002

IMPORTANT NOTICE—REGISTRATION AND MEMBERSHIP DUES FOR THOSE LISTED IN THE PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Payment of Registration Fees and Membership Dues Several points about meeting preregistration, program participation, and membership are discussed below. These items need your attention.

1. Preregistration and Membership Dues

All program participants must preregister for the Annual Meeting before APRIL 4, 2002 in order to have their names listed in the final program. A form is included in this newsletter. If you have not already paid preregistration fees, please return the form with your payment. If you were a member in 2000 or 2001, you should already have received a renewal for 2002 dues and a preregistration form for the Annual Meeting.

There are four clarifications to the preregistration fee and membership dues requirements for those who are listed on the program in Vancouver:

- In cases of multiple-authored papers, co-authors who are NOT attending the meeting do not have to pay preregistration fees or membership dues. However, the person responsible for presenting the paper in April must preregister and must also pay membership dues. In other words, at least one co-author must preregister and pay membership dues or the entire paper and all co-authors will be dropped from the program.
- If you are a sociologist from the western region (AZ, CA, NM, UT, NV, CO, HI, MT, OR, AK, ID, ALBERTA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, BAJA CA, SONORA, or CHIHUAHUA) you must pay both 2002 membership dues and 2002 preregistration fees.
- If you are a sociologist but NOT from the western region, you MUST pay preregistration fees, but you do not have to pay 2002 membership dues.
- If you are NOT a sociologist, you must pay 2002 preregistration fees, but you do NOT have to pay 2002 membership dues.

2. Program Participation

Being on the program means being listed in any position—presider, moderator, panelist, critic, roundtable presenter, roundtable presider/discussant, seminar leader/presenter, discussant, session organizer, presenter, workshop leader, speaker, etc. In short, any place your name appears is counted as a participation.

3. Attendance at the Meeting

If you are attending the meeting but are not on the program, you are expected to pay either preregistration fees or registration fees at the door. Preregistration fees are $35 US dollars; $50 Canadian dollars for faculty and/or over $15,000 income per year and $17.50 US dollars; $25 Canadian for students and/or under $15,000 income per year. Registration fees at the door will be $45 US dollars; $60 Canadian dollars for faculty and/or over $15,000 income per year and $25 US dollars; $35 Canadian dollars for students and/or under $15,000 annual income. Please see the Membership and Registration Form in this newsletter.

If you have questions about your status and these required dues and fees and/or you would like information about how to pay them, please contact the Secretary/Treasurer's Office at 916-278-5254; fax: 916-278-6281; or e-mail: psa@csus.edu

Over the past 20 years, and particularly since the 1986 World's Fair, Vancouver's downtown has been the site of a massive redevelopment of the built environment. This redevelopment has channeled emerging socio-economic and cultural trends in ways that have transformed the face of the urban core.

For much of the 20th Century, the relatively dense housing and wide availability of cheap rooms in the downtown peninsula and adjoining inner city neighborhoods accommodated a large population of transient renters as well as more settled working class communities that were focused on the surrounding waterfront industries, the resource-based hinterland economy, and the downtown office/retail complex. It was also the location for the city's intertwined bohemian and underground scenes as well as a center of progressive activism.

Over the past two decades, however, the conditions which supported these communities and scenes have been subjected to intense pressure, not only through the inflow of development capital and resulting demographic changes, but also from political-economic shifts which have reconfigured the structure and character of marginality. Redevelopment has meant an influx of new middle class homeowners and increasing numbers of tourists at precisely the same moment that the dismantling of the welfare state and economic restructuring have intensified poverty and generated new disenfranchised groups.

Today, downtown Vancouver is a place where high-priced, shiny condominium towers sit adjacent to or across the alley from the worst housing in the city and where property-owners reluctantly rub shoulders with drug users, panhandlers, and homeless youth. Nevertheless, this shift has taken place in the context of two generations of social and political activism, two legacies of which have been a dense network of community services, a large number of social housing projects and state intervention to alleviate or protect at least some groups from the full impact of redevelopment. At the same time, however, government policies have often facilitated redevelopment while alliances of business and middle class resident groups have engaged in NIMBYist campaigns to intensify regulation of the poor and accelerate redevelopment.

These walking tours will explore the history and implications of urban transformation in downtown Vancouver, paying special attention to the ways in which communities have sought to resist or, at least, mitigate the effects of redevelopment and gentrification as well as the political interventions intended to facilitate and/or regulate both redevelopment and the new social geography which it frames.

The walks will be open to 10 people at a time and will be guided by residents and activists from downtown neighborhoods. Each will take approximately an hour and forty-five minutes..

Please also note that at 5:30 on Saturday, Session #154 "Social Justice in the City: Contested Urban Space in Vancouver," will cover issues related to the walking tours. So sign up for a tour now!

1. The Downtown Walk will look at the tensions and contradictions in one of Canada's poorest urban neighborhoods, the Downtown Eastside. During the 1990s, the emergence of an open drug market, accompanied by spiraling rates of heroin deaths and HIV/AIDS infection, propelled the area to national notoriety as a diseased declining skid road slum. This discourse of decline ignores both the legacy of dispossession, which has characterized this part of the city since Vancouver was founded here in the 1880s and the legacy of activism, which has animated widespread improvements in living conditions over the past 20 years.

2. The Crosstown Walk will take you from the uptown area to the Downtown Eastside, exploring the linkages between uptown redevelopment, displacement, and marginalization in downtown Vancouver.

HOTEL, TRANSPORTATION AND TRAVEL INFORMATION FOR 2002 MEETING IN VANCOUVER BC: APRIL 18-21

The 2002 PSA Annual Meeting will take place at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, 655 Burrard Street, Vancouver BC Canada V6C 2R7.

The Hyatt Regency is located at the center of Vancouver's downtown business and shopping district. There are many restaurants within walking distance from the hotel. Public Transportation is nearby. The 644 room, 34-story hotel is located 20 minutes from the Vancouver Airport. It has a heated outdoor pool and a fitness center.

The PSA rate in US dollars is approximately $110-112 for a single and $120-124 for a double. The rate in Canadian dollars for a single is $170 and for a double is $190. In addition there is a 10% Provincial rooms tax and 7% Goods and Services Tax per room night. The G.S.T. tax is rebatable to non-Canadian residents upon receipt of the required documentation. The exchange rate can fluctuate, but it has varied very little over the last two-to-three years. PLEASE ASK FOR THE PSA RATE when making a reservation.

The direct number is 604-683-1234 and the Hyatt toll free number is 1-800-233-1234.

The cut off date for all reservations at the PSA rate is March 16, 2002. Reservation requests received after that date will be accepted on a space and rate availability basis. If the PSA rate is not available after the cutoff date, the prevailing rack rates will apply. Please keep in mind that all rooms in the PSA room block may sell out before the March 16th cutoff date. Also note that all deposits for individual room reservations are fully refundable if a room is cancelled two (2) days or more prior to the arrival date, and any guest who departs earlier than the departure date confirmed at check-in will be assessed an early departure fee of 25 Canadian dollars.

Parking There is hotel parking on site. The all day rate for non-hotel guests is $12.00 Canadian dollars or around $6.50 US dollars; for hotel guests the parking rate is $18.50 Canadian dollars or around $12.75 US dollars with in and out privileges.

Transportation to and from the Vancouver Airport There is airport scheduled bus service (every 30 minutes) between the airport and the Hyatt Regency Hotel; fare is $10 one way and $17 roundtrip in Canadian Dollars or around $6.50 and $11.00 in US Dollars. Bus #100 connects to Vancouver & points east. Bus stops are located on the Ground Level of the Domestic Terminal. Bus schedules are available at the Customer Service Counters and at the Tourism InfoCentres on the Arrivals Level of both terminals. Fares vary from $1.50 to $3.00 Canadian depending on the destination and time of day. Frequency and times vary depending on time of day, day of week or season.

Airport Departure Fee

Please also note that when you depart from Vancouver Airport, if you have stayed over night, there is a special fee you must pay before you can get through customs. This is the $10 Canadian Airport Improvement Fee. The best way to deal with this fee is to keep handy a $10 Canadian bill.

B. C. Ferries

B.C. Ferries operates several routes between the Lower Mainland (City of Vancouver and surrounding municipalities) and Vancouver Island. On the Lower Mainland side, ferries depart from both the Tsawwassen and Horseshoe Bay terminals. On the Vancouver Island side, ferries depart from both the Swartz Bay (Victoria) and Duke Point (Nanaimo) terminals.

Documents needed by US citizens for travel to Canada

Please also keep in mind that US citizens are required to have documentary evidence of their US citizenship and identity. The following documents will normally meet this requirement: US Passport; Original Naturalization Certificate; Original or certified copy of birth certificate, hospital or baptismal certificate (newborn only) or Report of Birth Abroad of a citizen of the US, and a valid, unexpired government-issued photo identification such as a state driver's license (photo identification is not required for children who are accompanied by their parents). A driver's license alone is not sufficient; voter registration cards are no longer accepted as proof of citizenship.

VANCOUVER, A LOVELY CITY THAT IS NOT REALLY EXPENSIVE

If you always wanted to visit Vancouver but haven't because you have heard that it is too expensive, think again. With the favorable US dollar exchange rate ($1 US = .65 cents Canadian as this is written), everything is no more expensive than San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, or San Diego, and in fact, some things are even cheaper. For example, the 2002 meeting will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, a first class hotel in downtown Vancouver. The room rate in US dollars, as this is printed, is approximately $109 single and $124 double. A convention room rate in a Hyatt in Long Beach, San Francisco, or San Diego would be around $150-170 US dollars or even higher in 2002.

Food and transportation are also cheaper. The cost of taking the airporter bus roundtrip from the Vancouver airport to the Hyatt is around $11.00 US. Restaurant costs will be reasonable as well with many, many ethnic restaurants of varying prices within walking distance of the Hyatt.

So don't let the rumors about Vancouver being expensive, frighten you away. With the exchange rate, it is not really too expensive in comparison with major west coast American cities.

NEED A ROOMMATE IN VANCOUVER?

If you need a roommate to share expenses in Vancouver, please contact Dale McPherson (UNLV) mcpherda@juno.com. He will put you in touch with others who are seeking a roommate.

NEED CHILD CARE IN VANCOUVER?

Although the PSA does not provide childcare, if you need child care please contact Dean S. Dorn, Secretary/Treasurer at psa@csus.edu. He will put you in touch with others who are seeking childcare. A cooperative arrangement may be able to be worked out among those needing this service. The Hyatt Regency Hotel concierge can also arrange child care for a fee; they need four hours notice.

If you wish to submit a nomination for an award, you must supply the supporting materials and documentation detailed below for each award. While it is possible for a person, publication, etc., to be nominated in more than one year, if appropriate, no nominations or supporting materials will be carried over from year to year. It is the nominator's responsibility to submit three copies of all nominations and supporting materials including articles, books, etc. by the nomination deadline. The deadline will be February 1, 2002 for all awards except in the case of the Distinguished Scholarship Award. The nomination deadline for that award will be December 1, 2001.

The 2002 Distinguished Scholarship Award

The Pacific Sociological Association's Award for Distinguished Scholarship is granted to sociologists from the Pacific region in recognition of major intellectual contributions embodied in a recently published book or series of at least three articles on a common theme. To be eligible for the 2002 award, a book must have been published in 2000 or later. If a nomination is based on a series of articles, the most recent article in that series must have been published in 2000 or later. The Committee does NOT accept nominations for the Scholarship Award from Publishers. Nominators must be from individual members of the PSA. If a book has both a hardback and paperback copyright date and no significant changes have been made in the book between editions, the committee will consider the earlier copyright date as the one determining eligibility for the award. Nominations for distinguished scholarship and all supporting materials must be submitted by December 1, 2001. You must provide the Committee with three copies of the book and/or articles.

The 2002 Distinguished Contributions to Teaching Award Individual Teaching Award: The Pacific Sociological Association honors outstanding career contributions to teaching, a series of projects, or a specific product or process which an individual or small group of individuals in the western region have contributed to the teaching and learning of sociology. These may include

- Products and/or processes that enhance undergraduate and/or graduate intellectual inquiry and learning of sociology within one's own institution or beyond its campus. Examples include innovative teaching techniques, use of new technologies, service learning, distance learning, learning assessment of sociology, textbooks, publications related to teaching, teaching programs, devices or materials, laboratory designs, instructional computer packages, innovative curricular contributions or curriculum design, or workshops;

- Relevant contributions to state, regional, or national associations;
- Activities that illuminate, educate, and nurture public understanding and appreciation of the usefulness of the discipline and of sociological principles and research. The Pacific Sociological Association's Distinguished Contributions to Teaching Award is given to an individual sociologist from the western region and/or to a department of sociology in the western region. The award is given to those who have developed teaching programs, curricula, or materials which have been unusually effective in enhancing student understanding and fostering appreciation of sociology as a field of study. The grounds for nominations are open but include textbooks and other teaching materials, laboratory designs, instructional computer packages, innovative curricular contributions, and evidence of special impact on students. You must provide the Committee with three copies of the supporting documentation.

For the individual teaching award, nominations should include:

1. The name of the nominee, a very detailed statement with a very specific explanation of how this individual's work constitutes a [career] contribution to the teaching of sociology;
2. Letters of support from individuals having direct knowledge of the nominee's contributions;
3. Copies of any teaching materials developed by the nominee (if relevant to the nomination);
4. Some evidence of the nominee's impact in the classroom (these might be student evaluations or other evidence);
5. The nominee's vita;
6. Additional supporting materials are encouraged.

Department Contributions To Teaching Award: The Pacific Sociological Association honors a Department of Sociology, school, or other collective actor in the western region for its outstanding contribution to the teaching of sociology. Individual strengths and competencies combine, in consensus, to produce a single product or process or a series of projects that

- Improve(s) the quality of undergraduate and/or graduate teaching and learning, e.g., sequential curriculum design; teaching programs, devices, or materials; service learning; distance learning; or learning assessment of sociology, etc.;
- Relevant contributions to state, regional, or national associations;
- Activities that illuminate, educate and nurture public understanding and appreciation of the usefulness of the discipline and of sociological principles and research.

For the departmental teaching award, nominations should include evidence that supports the departmental nominee in the above categories. You must provide three copies of the evidence.

INITIAL CALL FOR SESSIONS

74th Annual Meeting, April 3-6, 2003
Pasadena, California

THEME: SOCIAL SCIENCE AND SOCIAL POLICY

Since the earliest days of the discipline, much of sociology has focused on social problems and social issues. For over a century many sociologists have hoped that our analyses of social problems could be used to develop effective and humane ways to make the world a better place. Over the years our academic research has produced a great deal of knowledge about processes that underlie issues as varied as prejudice, discrimination, crime, family violence, educational achievement, and international relations. A growing number of sociologists work within applied settings and use their knowledge and skills to work directly with issues ranging from health care to work place interactions. While divisions between sociology and the other social sciences were once quite marked, in recent years cross-disciplinary work has become common and scholars with a broad range of perspectives work together toward common goals. This accumulation of academic knowledge, along with our growing presence in applied fields and the increase in cross-disciplinary work can provide the basis for a more effective and sustained impact of sociological knowledge on social policy.

The 2003 PSA Program theme will focus on the linkage of social science and social policy. How can sociological findings be effectively translated into humane and just social policies? What types of political and ethical concerns face researchers, and the discipline as a whole, when we try to link knowledge and policy? How can sociologists work most effectively in the policy arena and in governmental and private and non-profit agencies? How can cross-disciplinary work contribute to the development of more effective research and linkages with the policy world? What can be and/or what should be the role of social scientists in the development of social policy? More generally, we hope that the program will provide a way to advance the hope of the early sociologists that our science of society can produce a more humane and equitable world.

The 2003 PSA Program Committee seeks to generate a broad range of sessions related to the theme of social science and social policy. We hope to see sessions that address methodological issues, theoretical development, and research findings that involve social problems and policy development. We hope to see sessions that address research understandings and effective policy related to both domestic and international issues across a wide range of areas from families and schools to economic development, environmental sustainability, and international political relationships. Work that examines the ways in which social scientists can and do work in interdisciplinary teams and in applied settings is welcome, and we hope to see sessions that address political and ethical issues involved in the interaction of research and policy development.

We invite sociological researchers, educators, and practitioners from all perspectives to join in our analysis of social science and social policy at the 74th Annual Meeting of the Pacific Sociological Association. The 2003 PSA meeting in Pasadena promises exciting and vibrant exchanges of ideas in a broad spectrum of interactive formats: roundtables, debates, panel discussions, paper presentations, and workshops. Come share your ideas and innovations in social theory, methods, teaching, and practice. As always, papers and presentations unrelated to the meeting theme are encouraged and will make up a large part of the program.

Nominate yourself or suggest that your colleagues organize a session. Send your nominations and suggestions for sessions by May 1, 2002, to the Program Chair: Marilyn Whalen, Systems and Practices Laboratory, Xerox Palo Alto Research Center, 3333 Coyote Hill Road, Palo Alto, CA 94304, (650) 812-4614, email: mwhalen@parc.com.

WHEN RENEWING YOUR DUES FOR 2002 CONSIDER A DONATION TO THE PSA ENDOWMENT FUND

When renewing your dues for 2002, please consider making a donation to the PSA Endowment Fund. Space is provided for this on the dues renewal notice sent to all PSA members in December.

Donations and Bequests to the PSA Endowment Fund will be used for a variety of purposes, pending approval by a majority vote of the PSA Council. These purposes could include, for example, PSA operating expenses, maintenance and improvement of its publications, one-time Association special projects, scholarships for students, Visiting Scholars to the Association's annual meetings, monetary gifts to the Association's annual award winners, dissertation research awards, minority scholarships, and any other activities approved by the PSA Council which enhance the Association, its membership, and the profession in the Western Region.

Since the PSA is a tax exempt organization under Federal Tax Law, section 501 (C) (3), all cash contributions to the Endowment Fund are tax deductible, with the exception of raffle tickets and selling items like T-shirts, Mugs, etc. The Secretary/Treasurer will send a receipt for tax purposes to donors who make a tax deductible contribution. All donors who contributed in the previous calendar year will be recognized by name in the May issue of the PSA Newsletter.

As donations come in, they will be invested in interest accounts and/or other types of income accounts managed by the Secretary/Treasurer of the Association with the approval of PSA Council. Interest and income would be reinvested in the Endowment Fund.

No money can be expended from the Fund until it reaches at least $50,000; that is, all money would be reinvested into the capital of the Fund until it reaches that amount. It is anticipated that the fund will exceed $50,000 by January 1, 2003.

The Fund is overseen by a six member ad hoc committee of the PSA, The PSA Endowment Committee, appointed by the Committee on Committees with the approve of PSA Council.

HAS YOUR ADDRESS CHANGED?

Please help the PSA save money! Make sure your journal and newsletter arrive in a timely manner! Inform the PSA Office if you change your address!

If you change addresses, please inform the PSA Office in Sacramento. It is imperative that you do this for two reasons. If you don't inform us of your new address, the Association will pay twice to have the journal and newsletter sent to you, once to your old address and then again to your new, forwarding address.

COUNCIL ON UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

The Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR) officially welcomed its new social sciences division at its annual meeting June 20-23, 2001. Elizabeth Paul of The College of New Jersey and Julio Rivera of Carthage College were elected co-chairs of the division. Dr. Paul engages undergraduates in research on youths' risky sexual behavior, including community-based research on urban youth. Dr. Rivera's work examines differences in human interpretations of map data from GIS analysis.

CUR is a national non-profit organization that supports and promotes high-quality undergraduate research and scholarship. Focused on the belief that faculty-student collaborative research, along with investigative teaching strategies, greatly enhances undergraduate education, CUR generates awareness and national support for undergraduate research. Benefits enjoyed by our 3,000+ individual members include receipt of timely information concerning undergraduate research, discounts on publications, and the opportunity to hold leadership roles. These members represent about 850 institutions from across the country, forming a nationwide network of individuals dedicated to supporting our goals.

The organization benefits from the expertise of our new Social Science council members, including geographers, economists, sociologists, criminologists, and other disciplines among the social sciences. The 14 elected councilors from across the nation include leaders of disciplinary and interdisciplinary undergraduate research programs, scholars who have published with undergraduate researchers, recipients of national undergraduate research grants, and consultants to private industry, government, non-profit organizations, and institutions of higher education.

The group established the following priorities for the first year:

- (1) recruiting new members and councilors from a broad range of social sciences
- (2) establishing connections with social science professional organizations and funding sources
- (3) assuring the representation of the social sciences in the upcoming CUR 2002 conference and CUR publications
- (4) developing a Social Science Division web site as a resource for and place for exchange among social scientists committed to research that includes undergraduates

We invite you to join us in this endeavor to enrich faculty and student academic lives. For further information, visit the CUR web site at <http://www.cur.org>, or contact the CUR National Office at cur@cur.org, Dr. Paul at bethpaul@tcnj.edu, or Dr. Rivera at julio@carthage.edu.

Each year the Committee on Committees is looking for interested and committed members who can be recommended to the President and the Council for possible appointment.

Committee Membership must represent the Southern, Central, and Northern sections of the PSA western region. Usually there is one opening for each region on each appointed committee. Those responsible for committee appointments are always glad to know of willing volunteers. The PSA has 15 committees that members can volunteer to serve on: endowment committee, membership, audit, contract monitoring, awards, status of women, status of ethnic minorities, status of gays, lesbians, and bisexuals, teaching, freedom of research and teaching, civil liberties and civil rights, social conscience/action, student affairs, and sociological practice. Members are appointed by the PSA Council and the President based on recommendation from the Committee on Committees. Self-nominations are acceptable. Serving on a PSA Committee is an effective way to network with professional colleagues. If you are interested, please indicate below. Even if you have volunteered before and not been selected, please fill out and clip the form below.
